Hawaii Writing Retreat 2011

We are planning an Eco-Arts writing retreat on the big island of Hawaii for early 2011 with the team of Peggy Shumaker, Eloise Klein Healy and Colleen Rooney.

Two active volcanoes will inspire us with their creativity – see what's emerging from the depths!

We will have a detailed itinerary and confirmed dates soon. Let us know if you are interested and we'll put you on the mailing list for early registration.
